

Wet Woodland (Fen Carr)

Wet woodland is a national priority habitat, supporting many rare species, and is especially rare in the Greater London area. The majority will remain untouched, providing a refuge for many wildlife species during the desilting.

However, a small area of wet woodland near the southern weir will be reduced to improve the flow of water to the weir and provide an improved view of the lake.